LEEJA'S HOUSING CORNER

featuring Meia Mochi's home on Ultros

gposers

Hello and welcome, fellow housing enthusiasts, to a very special edition of Leeja's Housing Corner! Here at GPOSERS August marks our anniversary, and in celebration of another successful year of doing what we love, I will be featuring the house of one of our staff members - Meia Mochi. Meia is not only a wonderful housing designer, but also one of our magazine's talented Designers and Photographers! It's always quite a struggle trying to decide which home to feature every month as there are so many talented housing designers in this community, and this month was no exception! I'd like to thank everyone who opened their homes to me, but alas, there can be only one! Without further ado, let's jump right in and travel to Meia's home in the Mist on Ultros.

Meia's yard is truly a testament of her love for her favorite color - purple. Adorned on both sides with Lakeland Elf Trees, Plots of Hydrangeas, dyed purple of course, Eastern Wisteria trees, and Lupin Plots, her yard is cheerful and welcoming. To the right, a Glade Gazebo sits nestled among the flowers while a Nomad's Tent is tucked under one of the Eastern Wisterias, creating quite a lovely spot for an afternoon picnic!

Entering Meia's home is truly an experience. The front entrance is bathed in midafternoon light pouring through the Fool's Thresholds framed around the front door. Wooden Lofts create a faux platform where a Glade Cartonnier sits holding a Message Book for visitors to sign.

gposers

Stepping down from the entry platform, we walk directly into an open living room. Leather Sofas are dyed a cheery tone of yellow, complimenting the wooden features of the home. To the right and up a small set of steps is a beautifully lit kitchen. Light pours from Imitation Square Windows nestled into Verdant Partitions and bounces off the wooden floor.

To the left in a more private sitting room, Meia has artistically framed another Verdant Partition with White Screens dyed a shade of brown to blend nicely with the wooden border.

Mountains of books surround a Manor Fireplace while a lovely spread of fruits and tea lays on an Oriental Round Table sat between two Manor Sofas.

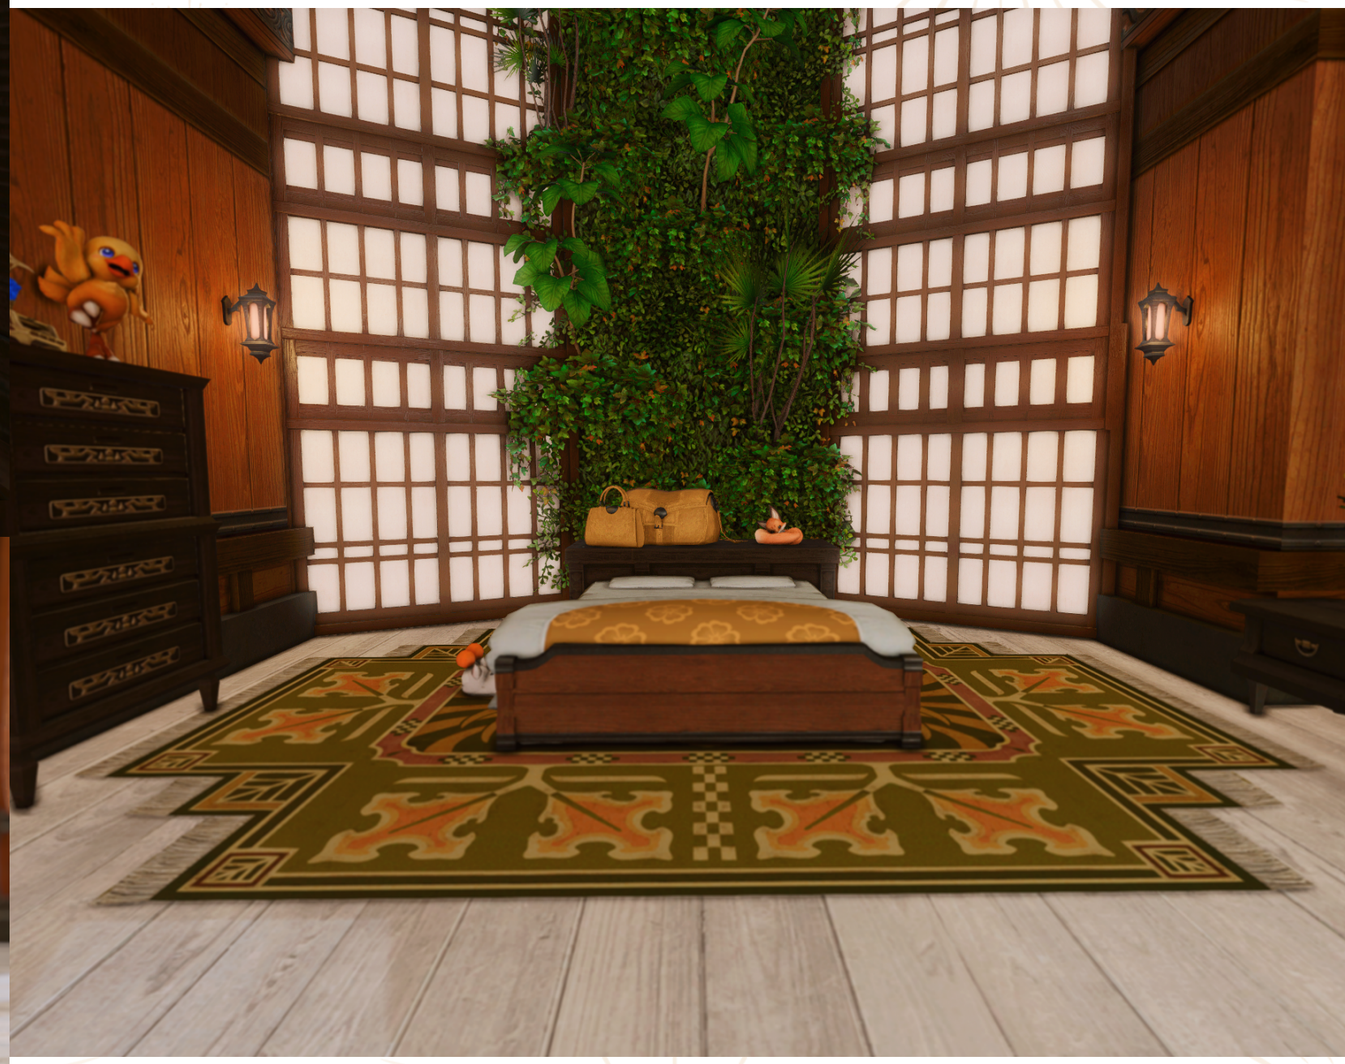
gposers

Heading upstairs, we have to pause to admire the way Meia has utilized the space under the stairs. Fool's Thresholds pour soft light onto the steps and a single Wall Planter adds a touch of greenery to the wooden space. To think, this sight would have been missed had I chosen to visit at a later time!

Another sitting room awaits in the room above—this time with a Manor Harpsichord. The large instrument stands next to a set of open windows. Light pours into the sitting area which includes Oasis Armchairs and a Shipping Crate utilized as a small table.

Finally, we enter the last space in Meia's home. Walking past the open windows, to the left is a cozy bathroom, complete with a lofted Carbuncle Bathtub surrounded by Wall Planters. A Lalafellin Step Stool provides Meia easy access to getting into and out of the large tub.



To the right is Meia's bedroom. Color-coordinated to perfection, the wood walls are complemented by the yellow comforter, a Glade Fringed Rug and Yellow Cosmos in a Glade Vase. Behind her bed, another Verdant Partition stands tall, framed by Fool's Thresholds lighting the room just right. This bedroom is calm, quiet, and comforting—everything you want from the place where you lay your head at night!

Well, that brings us to the end of our tour! I hope you all enjoyed this showcase as much as I did! If you're curious about her house and want to take a peek for yourself, you can find her over on Ultros in the Mist, Ward 13, Plot 36. I highly recommend visiting during the daytime to fully appreciate how lovely the lighting in her house truly is!

As always, I am forever on the hunt for houses, apartments, and more to visit, so if you or anyone you may know want to be featured in an upcoming article, give me a shout! If you're on Lamia, you can find me in Limsa Lominsa Upper Decks by the Delivery Moogle, probably waiting for my next Fantasia to arrive... Until next time, happy decorating!

Welcome back to GPOSERS after our summer hiatus, and what a month to return to! The Fantasy Faire is well underway, so let's see how we can make some Eastern-inspired festival photos during the Moonfire Faire.

First, we need an Eastern-inspired glam and an Eastern location. For this, the Kugane markets were my location. The vibrancy of the area, the NPCs, the lighting, all of these make up a terrific set for screenshots using the /gpose function.

gposers

Food items can make great props in screenshots! Firstly, buy a meal from the local culinary NPC, consume it, and then override the standard facial expression with /simper. Take your place nearby the local gossiping NPC's (and other players if you know any), light the scene, and voila! Many older oil paintings used hand gestures and eye-line to guide viewers around an image, why not try the same in your screenshots?

gposers

There are plenty of parasols available in-game, including some Eastern-themed accessories. Open a parasol from the fashion accessory menu. Choose a facial expression and activate the walk animation. In front of the parasol stall gives a repeating motif. It is an excellent opportunity to bring some other friends into the background interacting with each other. You can also use the environments — Kugane has beautiful colors and patterns to use!

gposers

Why not recreate some of your favorite anime and media festival scenes with the new Moonfire Mask Stall together with the masks and clothing from the previous Moonfire Faire celebrations? Maybe you will recognize this couple from a certain spirit anime movie and a forest of fireflies...

Share your Moonfire Faire screenshots with us on Twitter with the #GPOSERS hashtag, or in our [Discord server]!

예술가 쇼케이스

How long have you been creating art?

I've been drawing for as long as I can remember. During school I would always take my sketchbook everywhere and now as an adult, I stay indoors drawing away on my tablet! It's the one thing that I've been doing consistently throughout my whole life.

What do you love to draw the most?

I just love drawing pretty male and female characters but for the past year I'm learning how to draw more muscular characters too. It's fun to branch out and draw different types of people.

What motivates you to draw?

Drawing is one thing that lets me connect with people. I met many of my friends through drawing so sharing and getting feedback on my art is my top motivation for drawing. Other times I get an idea I want to visualize and just have to draw it out for myself.

Who/What is the inspiration behind your art?

There are many artists that I look up to, one of which is Kim Hyung Tae, art director of Blade & Soul and The War of Genesis series. My coloring style is nowhere similar to his but I really appreciate how alluring all his character designs look. Since I also draw many comics, my manga inspiration is Shirow Miwa, mangaka of Dogs series. The dramatic usage of black in each cut is really eye-catching!

Do you accept commissions?

Unfortunately I don't accept personal commissions. Currently I run a Patreon page where I share early access to my works, timelapse videos, and other exclusive content. I also use Twitter!

How long have you been creating art?

I've been drawing for a very long time, it was the only hobby that I really enjoyed growing up and the only one I still continue to have to this day! It was around last year that I decided to get somewhat serious about my art, after some encouragement from my friends, and really started to knuckle down and study.

What do you love to draw the most?

Anything cute. I've always had an obsession with drawing cute things, and Lalafells are cute, so definitely lots and lots of Lalafells. Pretty ladies and cute button noses also!

What motivates you to draw?

The encouragement that I get from my friends is definitely the biggest motivator I have. I often get disheartened very easily with my artwork and they are the ones that cheer me on and get me to push through it and keep going. Music also! I'll sometimes be listening to something completely random and a scene will pop up in my head and I'll think "Ooh, I should draw that!"

Who/What is the inspiration behind your art?

A lot of my inspiration comes from the artists I followed during the era of Tumblr, so much of their art is still ingrained into my mind, especially artists like Kiwibon who was one of the first artists I saw use thicker lineart in comparison to others, and that's something I loved and inspired me to attempt myself. I still use it in my artwork to this day.

Do you accept commissions?

Currently my commissions are closed, however I am hoping to open them up soon!

How long have you been creating art?

I started learning 2 years ago, and then kickstarted my study in March of 2020. During this year and time, I received a lot of support from my friends and mutuals who believed in my work and success!

What do you love to draw the most?

I will admit, I have a bias for drawing male Lalafells or Lalafells in general. So if you are a Lalafell, I'll happily take on more Lalafell commissions!

What motivates you to draw?

I never really had much of a dream for art, but it is fun and I enjoy it. One of the things that cures my low days is drawing my own Lalafell. I put a lot of passion into my character in-game and drawing him gives me a lot of fulfillment as an artist.

Who/What is the inspiration behind your art?

Akihiko Yoshida and Hideo Minaba are my style inspirations as I appreciate and love the JRPG genre a lot. I grew up with the Final Fantasy and Square Enix franchises and therefore love the work produced by them.

Do you accept commissions?

Yes, but I am closed at the moment. Sadly my workload is too heavy and I have way too many obligations on the side or with my full-time job. One day I would love to be a full-time freelancer if the income is enough.

MINION MENAGERIE

WHO WILL YOU TAKE ON YOUR NEXT ADVENTURE?

WATER IMP

Location : The Gold Saucer - Wonder Square (x:5.1, y:6.7)

NPC : Gold Saucer Attendant (Prize Claim)

Currency : 10,000 MGP

Legend states these strange creatures can only survive on land as long as the plate atop their heads remains wet.

Even a child knows that there are no such things as water imps...but if that is true, then what in the world could this undeniably imp-like creature be? An undocumented species of gigantoad/ salamander hybrid? Or perhaps simply the hapless victim of amisdirected Imp spell?

WIND-UP
SUZAKU

Location : Shadowbringers Original Soundtrack Order Bonus

Complete with her flute and her senses.

Upon hearing the tale of his compatriot Soroban's adventures, a Kojin dollmaker was moved to honor the Four Lords, guardians of the Ruby Sea. This recreation of Suzaku is one of the fruits of his efforts, masterfully capturing the essence of the legendary auspice.

SEITEI

Crafted : Weaver Lvl.70

Dragon-ness is in the eye of the beholder.

While the true Seiryu has been documented as being more serpent than dragon, this replica of the azure auspice bears a striking resemblance to Kirin (though assurances have been made that this design decision was by no means a cost-cutting measure).

gposers

SCARLET PEACOCK

Crafted : Weaver Lvl.70

Prettier than your average peacock, and several times as flammable.

Peafowl have long been admired in the Far East for their brilliant plumage, but it is their penchant for hunting venomous vilekin that has earned them reverence typically reserved for kami. As such, effigies of the birds are believed to bring their owners good fortune.

Currency : 7 Namazu Koban

Wasshoi, yes, yes.

Gyoshin labored through several nights to fincraft this tiny Namazu (though the happi stitchwork is clearly Gyorei's). He intended to make it in the likeness of the 777th attendee, but soon lost count, so model selection was ultimately random.

The Ninth Vare

COERTHAS WESTERN HIGHLANDS (37, 27)

One of the twelve watchtowers that were constructed in commemoration of King Thordan's Knights Twelve, the Ninth Vare was the final stop for travelling pilgrims. In the present, only the ninth tower remains standing.

Woad Whisper Canyon

MIDDLE LA NOSCEA (21, 12)

In the days before the Calamity, Woad Whisper Canyon was accessible through a tunnel leading from Skull Valley by the Swiftperch Tower. Afterwards, the changes to the lay of the land led to the shifting of the stream of the Nym River, which now flows down into the canyon, forming a waterfall and then continuing onwards through Three-malm Bend into Galadion Bay.

Anyx Minor

THE DRAVANIAN FORELANDS (12, 38)

Anyx Minor was once a proud city, but all that remains in the present are shattered ruins. The Holy See took the official stance that Anyx Minor was a settlement of heretics, laid to waste by Halone as an act of divine retribution, although scholars disagree on the historical accuracy of this interpretation.

Art Party

The GPOSERS Community has had the pleasure of hosting not just one but two amazing art parties in two different data centers, each with its own fun and unique theme. The Primal and Crystal data centers have turned up, served great looks, posted amazing art, and helped make some great memories. Here is the recap on these fun evenings.

PRIMAL DC

FINE FASHION ART PARTY

This fabulous Primal DC art party held in Lamia on the 28th of May was graced by a large turnout of people ready to strut the runway. The night featured a fine fashion runway glamour contest where Scarlet Falcon of Hyperion dressed to impress, and great music was performed in-game by the talented Bards Guild.

CRYSTAL DC

GPOSERS à la pâtisserie

This maid café-inspired Crystal DC art party was held in Brynhildr on the 3rd of July. Fancily dressed café-goers enjoyed live music from The Bards Guild, fun mini contests, a sweet glamour competition where Aria Erabith and Lyrus Omega dressed to impress, and a special art and talk stream was hosted by our very own Maph and Tomamo Mai.

Enify Marena

DESIGNER LOUISOIX

Hey everyone! My name is Enify, but most people call me Eni. I'm very grateful and excited that I have the opportunity to join GPOSERS as a designer! I'm currently still studying to become a Visual Designer so I'm not an expert at it, but I'm glad that I'm able to learn more about designing while contributing to a wonderful and creative magazine!

Final Fantasy XIV brought me a lot of joy and lots of new friends. I started my journey in June 2018 with my friend on Omega; sadly most of my friends on Omega lost interest in playing the game after 2 years, so I transferred to Louisoix where some of my other friends were. Ever since I've been enjoying every single moment in-game. It felt like I had a fresh start on a new world and it made it more enjoyable for me to play! After a while I started to get interested in raiding and created my own static with some of my friends called Hakuna Matata. We started our journey with Eden's Verse (Savage) into Eden's Promise (Savage) and now we're trying to clear Ultimates! It's been so much fun that I can't wait for Endwalker to come out and create more wonderful memories with my friends.

When I'm not raiding, I spend most of my time taking screenshots of my character or decorating my house! Taking screenshots became a thing after I got introduced to GShade 2 years ago. Ever since I have folders with lots of pictures from over the years with lovely memories! I've also been interested in housing glitches! It opened so many possibilities for me. I've watched many videos about housing and it makes my house a work in progress 24/7, but no matter which one I watch, it always ends up amazing me.

If you happen to see me around, feel free to say hi! Thank you again for letting me join this amazing project! Hope to see you around!
